McKinley's Mail is Overburdened With Notifications

OF THOSE WHO WILL SUPPORT

Who Have Formerly Been Affiliated with the Democratic Party—One of Morgan's Raiders Promises His Support. New York Democratic Organization Sends Its Congratulations and a Chicago Club Adds Its Felicitations—Everything Seems to be Coming McKinley's Way.

CANTON, O., July 23.—Major McKinley's mail to-day included several remarkable communications. One from Pike's Peak, read:

"PIKE'S PEAK SUMMIT, Colo.
"To William McKinley, Canton, Ohio.
"Sound money greeting from Pike's Peak."
(Signed.)

"S. HENRY MATLOCK,
JAMES DEWOLF,
F. D. SULLIVAN,
ALLEN SELLERS."

George D. Reynolds, a leading St. Louis business man, sends a letter from an old Morgan raider, who is now a leading Memphis business man, in which he says he will support McKinley, although always a Democrat. He escaped with Morgan from the Columbus, Ohio, penitentiary, and served throughout the war of the Confederacy.

The Chicago McKinley Democratic Club, of 1322 Madison building, sends greetings with fifty members at the next meeting, and accessions reported daily. The committee of New York Democrats, organized for a McKinley conference at the Plaza Hotel, sent congratulations signed by John Byrne, Robert McGinnis, Jr., F. C. Travers, V. P. Travers and John Crane.

Cheering Words From Nebraska.
CANTON, Ohio, July 23.—In Mr. McKinley's mail to-day was the following letter received from Nebraska:

"YORK, Neb., July 22.
To Hon. William McKinley, Canton, O.
Notwithstanding that Nebraska is the center of the Populistic maelstrom, Republicans are enthusiastic, active and confident. York has a McKinley club of 425 members, which includes 108 soldiers. The club sends its compliments to its great leader, the next President of the United States. Nebraska Republicans are not alarmed, nor intimidated. They have fearlessly faced and combated Populistic vagaries for six years."
(Signed.) N. V. HARTMAN, President.

A LONDON SCANDAL

In which an American Woman Figures Aired in Court.

LONDON, July 23.—The trial of the Yarde-Buller divorce case began today, before the Right Hon. Sir Francis Henry James. The plaintiff is the Hon. Walter Yarde-Buller, brother of Lord Churston, and member of a distinguished Devonshire family. The defendant, Mrs. Lillah Yarde-Buller, is the daughter of General R. W. Kirkham, a wealthy resident of San Francisco, Cal. The Yarde-Bullers were married in 1886. The plaintiff alleges cruelty and adultery on the part of the defendant, with Mr. Valentine Gadesden, who is said to be a real estate agent in San Francisco. Mrs. Yarde-Buller denies all the alleged allegations and makes counter accusations. The plaintiff's petition relates the facts of his marriage with the defendant, who was then the widow of Mr. Boyle Blair, who died in the British consular service in South Africa. He settled $5,000 up her, subject to the life interest of his mother. Soon after the marriage, it is alleged, he discovered that his wife was given to drink. After their return to England, it is further alleged, the defendant upon several occasions threatened to kill the petitioner, with a knife, and struck him with a silver mounted bag. Evidence, the petitioner alleged, will be introduced to prove that Gadesden and the defendant were seen in each other's bedrooms while Gadesden was visiting Churston court, in Devonshire, the estate of Mr. Yarde-Buller.

Mr. Yarde-Buller took the witness stand and testified in support of the allegations contained in the petition. He also denied the accusations of adultery which his wife brought against him in her counter petition. He and his wife had separated, but were reunited in 1891. His wife, however, he testified, continued to behave like a mad woman. Once she took poison. She locked herself in the drawing room and made strange noises. Sometimes she locked her husband out of the house. Upon one occasion she struck him with a dinner plate.

One night she insisted upon going to the Alhambra Music hall and afterwards to the Cafe Cavour, a resort of the demi-monde where she made a disturbance while he was talking with a friend. Then she drove home with a strange woman and locked him out of the house.

Under cross-examination the petitioner denied that his domestic troubles arose from his drinking habits and fast living. He had never struck his wife, he testified, although he had signed a statement that he had done so.

The hearing was adjourned.

A Premium on Mob Rule.
New York World (Dem.): Among the planks in the Chicago platform which Mr. Bryan has pledged himself, if elected, to "carry out to the letter," are some that would evoke more constant condemnation if the silver issue had not overshadowed all the rest.

One of them is the denunciation of "arbitrary interference by federal authorities in local affairs as a violation of the constitution of the United States and a crime against free institutions." It is asserted without contradiction that this plank was framed or its insertion secured by Governor Altgeld. It was intended as a condemnation of President Cleveland's action in sending federal troops to Chicago to open the trunk lines of railroads and to prevent obstruction of interstate travel and the passage of the mails by a murderous and incendiary mob which was not interfered with by the governor of Illinois. The resolution has no other relevancy or meaning.

Boys that Kill.
CHICAGO, July 23.—Harry Rudolph, aged 11, struck two blows with his tiny fist last evening and his opponent, Grover Hanson, aged 9, fell dead at his feet. The lads were having a boyish quarrel and young Hanson started to run. Rudolph followed and entering the lad near the curb, struck him in the face and abdomen. Little Hanson covered his face with his hands and fell backward and expired. Young Rudolph was locked up by the police. The physician who examined young Hanson gave it as his opinion that the lad died from cerebral congestion, resulting from a shock affecting the heart action.

Why He Rites.
New York Press: Richard T. Wilson, a prominent Wall street banker, has joined the ranks of Democratic bolters, and declared yesterday that he would vote for McKinley. "I will cast my first ballot for a Republican candidate for the presidency this year," said Mr. Wilson, "the question before the people this year is one above and beyond party triumph. I have abandoned the Democratic party because true Democracy was falsified and disgraced by the men who controlled the Chicago convention. This free silver heresy, were it adopted, would blight the prosperity of the nation beyond years to come. It would unsettle our country trade especially and would bring about a era of uncertainty in commercial circles the appalling consequences of which these unscrupulous fanatics do not yet understand. These are the reasons why I have left the Democratic party. The Chicago platform's attack upon the chief executive for calling out troops to quell riots and the attack upon the permanency of the supreme court breathe the spirit of anarchy. No true Democrat can support such doctrine."

AGAINST BRYAN.

Many Prominent Democrats of Martinsburg Repudiate the Ticket.
Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., July 23.—D. C. Westenhaver, one of the brightest lawyers of the Berkeley county bar, and a Democrat of prominence, is out against Bryan and Sewall. Mr. Westenhaver is also a public spirited citizen and is interested in farming and local enterprises. Aside from being a lawyer, of high standing, he is a student of the great political questions and there is no one here whose opinion is held in higher esteem. When interviewed on the Chicago convention platform and ticket he had this to say: "The result of the Chicago convention is a matter of intense regret to me, as it must be to every sincere Democrat. Neither the platform adopted nor the candidate nominated is entitled to be called Democratic. On the contrary, Mr. Bryan has been in alliance with the Populists of his own state for two years and has often announced his intention not to support the Democratic national candidate, unless he was for the free coinage of silver. Populists regard the platform, as well as the candidate, simply as an endorsement of their principles, and in this view I fully concur, not only as to the debasement of our currency, but also in the demand for the unlimited issue of inconvertible greenbacks, the denunciation of civil service reform and of the action of the administration in suppressing the Chicago riots. Even the tariff plank is not such as a genuine tariff reformer would have written."

"Aside from the tendency to disregard law and order, shown by the convention, free coinage at 16 to 1, means in its last analysis, the debasement of a dollar from 23.22 grains to 13 grains. Such universal repudiation and contempt of business as this would bring, never been known. For three years the fear of such a change has hung over the country and the effects are known by all men. In the wreck of business which would follow, the laborer and farmer, neither of whom have capital enough to weather a financial storm, would be the worst victims. All should beware such disaster to our business and such dishonor to our country, and until it is overthrown it is useless to talk of other political issues."

Among the other prominent Democrats here who repudiated the work of the Chicago Democratic convention, are: Mayor W. T. Henshaw; ex-Mayor J. W. McSherry; Dr. J. B. Snodgrass, a leading physician and a life long Democrat; F. S. Emmert and W. W. House, wealthy, prominent men; H. H. Emmert, lawyer, who was candidate for prosecuting attorney in 1892; James F. Thompson, leading clothier, and dry goods merchant, who until the Chicago convention was a candidate for the nomination of state senator on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Thompson thinks his whole family will bolt, which alone means a Democratic loss of seven votes.

Lived Unhappy in Their Lives.

CINCINNATI, July 23.—Early this morning six shots were fired at the residence of William T. Wiley, ladies' tailor and furrier, on West Fifth street. When Wiley's room was entered, Mrs. Wiley was found bleeding from five bullet wounds, and her husband unconscious with a bullet hole in his right temple. The woman died on the way to the hospital. Wiley's wound was superficial, the ball glancing off the skull. They have had frequent quarrels and were separated, but began to live together again about three months ago. Wiley saved his wife shot him and he then seized the revolver and fired at her. He came here from Louisville about fifteen years ago.

A Spanish Denial.

LEXINGTON, Mass., July 23.—Senor Don Dupuy de Lome, the Spanish minister to the United States, to-day, in an interview with a representative of the Associated Press, said that the Key West news of a reported battle between the rebels in Pinar del Rio and a small force under General Suarez Inclan, in which the latter was defeated, a part of his command killed and himself made prisoner, was purely imaginary. Senor de Lome added to this statement, the following: "General Suarez Inclan, the hero of the engagement at Cacarealera, in Pinar del Rio, where he defeated and dispersed 6,000 insurgents with 1,700 men, is well, and is operating with a column near Bahia Honda, on the north coast of Pinar del Rio."

A Concurrence.

PARIS, July 23.—Mrs. Booth Clibborn, commonly known as La Marchesa, head of the Salvation Army organization in France, was knocked down by a bicyclist in this city yesterday and was considerably hurt.

In connection with the foregoing dispatch, there is a coincidence in the fact that Mrs. Booth Clibborn, a sister of Mr. Booth Clibborn, suffered serious injury at East Orange, N. J., United States, one evening last week by being run down by a bicycle ridden by a Salvation Army woman, who was taking her first lesson in wheeling. Mrs. Booth Clibborn's wrist was broken and she sustained other painful hurts.

Gen. Nettleton's Successor.

KANSAS CITY, July 23.—The fact has just been made public that Edward S. Washburn has been elected president of the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis, and the Kansas City, Memphis & Birmingham railways to succeed the late George H. Nettleton. The appointment was made at the recent meeting of the board of officers held at Boston, but has just been made known. Mr. Washburn will have the title of president and general manager. It is understood the office of vice president, which he lately held, will be abandoned.

"SIXTEEN TO ONE."

When You Read This You will be Perfectly Posted

New York Advertiser:
Question—What is meant by "Sixteen to one?"

Answer—That Congress shall declare sixteen ounces of silver to be equal in money value to one ounce of gold.

Question—Are sixteen ounces of silver worth as much as one ounce of gold?

Answer—No; it takes about thirty-one ounces of silver to equal in value one ounce of gold.

Question—Can Congress alter this relative value by legislative fiat?

Answer—It cannot; relative worth of gold and silver is determined primarily by the relative production of these two metals.

Question—What is commercial ratio?

Answer—Commercial ratio is the ratio of actual value, the rate at which gold and silver can be exchanged.

Question—Why has the price of silver fallen heavily since 1873?

Answer—Chiefly because of its increased production. In the United States alone this increased from 27,551,000 ounces in 1873 to 65,500,000 ounces in 1892.

Question—What is free silver coinage at sixteen to one?

Answer—The coinage by the mints, without limit or restriction, of all the silver offered for that purpose into dollars containing sixteen times as many grains of silver as there are grains of gold in a gold dollar.

Question—Would these be "honest dollars?"

Answer—They would not; Each dollar would contain only about fifty-three cents' worth of silver and would be stamped with a lie on its face.

Question—Why do silver dollars now in existence, which contain only fifty-three cents' worth of silver, pass on a parity with gold?

Answer—Because the United States, by pledging itself to keep all its currency at par, has made each silver dollar, like each paper dollar, ultimately exchangeable for a gold dollar.

Question—Why would this not be the case under free coinage?

Answer—Because the enormous increase in the number of silver dollars would speedily make their redemption in gold impossible.

Question—Is it true that the suspension of free silver coinage in 1873 has contracted the currency and made money scarce?

Answer—No; this statement is a brazen falsehood. In 1873 the amount of money in circulation per capita was $3.04. In 1894 the amount in circulation per capita was $2.72.

Question—What are the leading gold standard countries?

Answer—The United States, France, Germany, Great Britain, Italy, Austria-Hungary and Spain. Russia is just preparing to go on a gold basis.

Question—Is any great, fully civilized country on a permanent silver basis?

Answer—No; Mexico, Peru, China and Japan are the leading silver standard nations, and Japan, like Russia, is getting ready to adopt the gold standard—the universal monetary standard of civilization.

Question—Have wages generally depreciated under the gold standard?

Answer—No; in the United States the wages of workmen were never so high in purchasing power as they were in 1892.

Question—What has cheapened the price of farm products?

Answer—The same thing that has cheapened manufactured products—improved facilities of production and transportation and a greatly enlarged output.

General Sickness for McKinley.

You and I and our comrades are not accustomed to use blank cartridges in presence of an enemy; therefore I don't propose to throw away my vote on any third candidate. Nor are we in the habit of withholding our fire when assailed; therefore I don't mean to stay at home and not vote at all.

I shall give a patriotic vote for my comrade, Major McKinley, believing that in so doing I am repeating what I did in '61, when as a war Democrat, I voted for Lincoln and the union.—Daniel E. Sikes, in a letter to a brother war veteran.
